Business Landscape 1970s-2000

In the last quarter of the twentieth century, financial markets came to play an increasingly important role in shaping the structure and strategy of the...corporation.

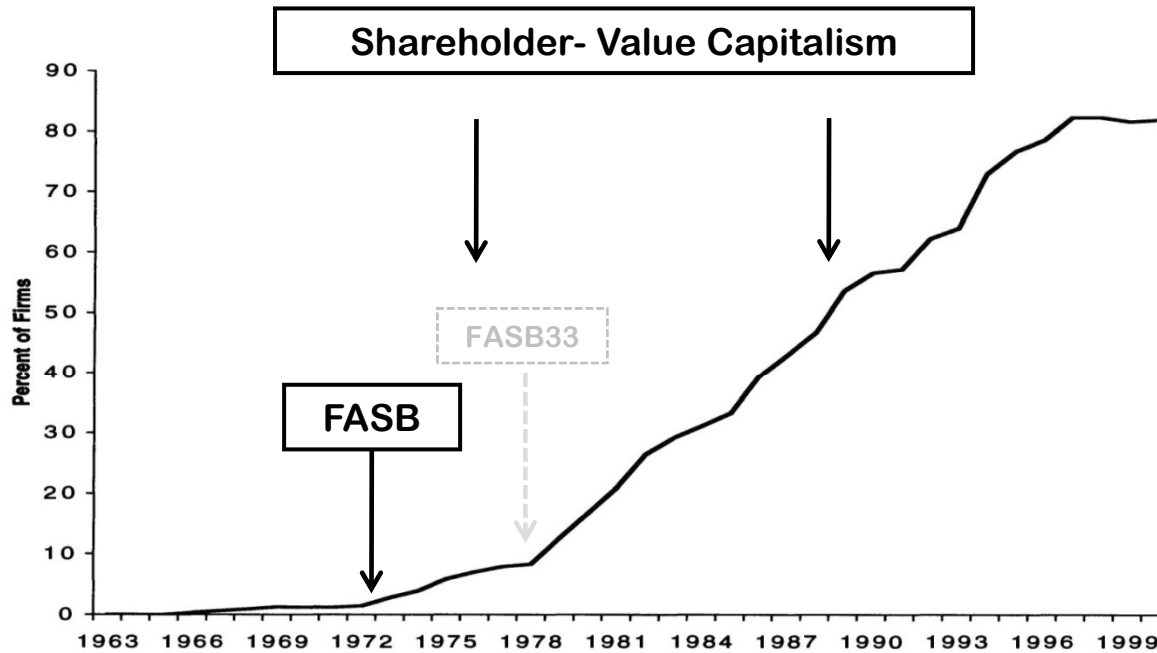

...chief financial officers took on the task of growth, helping rapidly expanding companies...with aggressive financing and by acquiring rivals.

...(in this era) the methods and practices of financial engineering...(made)corporations more profitable.

Rise of the CFO & Financial Engineering

Prevalence of CFO Positions 1963-2000

Source: Zorn, Dirk M. "Here a Chief, There a Chief: The Rise of the CFO in the American Firm", American Sociological Review (Jun 2004)

FASB set standards for the rise of the CFO and financial engineering to achieve growth and Shareholder Value.

FASB

For more than thirty years the Financial Accounting Foundation, with its standard's setting FASB, has been setting the standards (GAAP) for financial accounting and reporting...the standards by which all public and most private businesses report.

Our financial markets became the envy of the world and the CFO rose to Board level status along the way.

Business Landscape 2000-2008

These strategies...have moved in cycles of approximately 20-25 years for the past 130 years. At the end, there is often a recession or depression often accompanied by a long bearish stock market. Then the cycle begins anew.

...the methods and practices of financial engineering...have reached an endpoint in their ability to make corporations more profitable.

... the old tactics fail and this opens up the possibility for a new group of...managers to step forward and produce a new path.

Why not Marketing?

The activity, set of institutions, and processes for creating, communicating, delivering, and exchanging offerings that have value for customers, clients, partners, and society at large.

Defined by AMA Board of Directors (2007)

Marketing Landscape 2005-2008

*The numbers are there, but Finance doesn't buy them. They simply don't believe the numbers that come from marketing.
(ANA 2008)*

The study concluded that while marketing was not ignoring issues surrounding metrics and accountability, practices and initiatives underway were narrow in focus, lacking integration and generally not tied to financial performance in predictable ways.

Marketing will move from discretionary business expense to board-level strategic investment, only through an independent standards setting "authority" for measuring (forecasting & improving) the financial return from marketing activities.

3 Year Study
2005-2007

It's All About Measurement

*It is clear that if measurement is disregarded in marketing...
the field will be slow to advance.*

...objectives can be met only when measures are reliable and valid.

...without measurement research, marketing has true GIGO, garbage in-garbage out.

Was this warning of where we have been?
Not having advanced? Treated as discretionary expense?

Organizational Structure & Timing

Organizational Structure (MASB)

The Role of MASB

Measurement standards are essential for the efficient and effective functioning of a marketing driven business, because decisions about the allocation of resources and assessment of results rely heavily on credible, valid, transparent and understandable information.

The role of MASB is in setting the standards and processes necessary for evaluating marketing measures in a manner that insures credibility, validity, transparency and understanding.

MMAP

While marketing does not lack measures, it lacks standard metrics explicitly linked to financial performance in predictable ways.

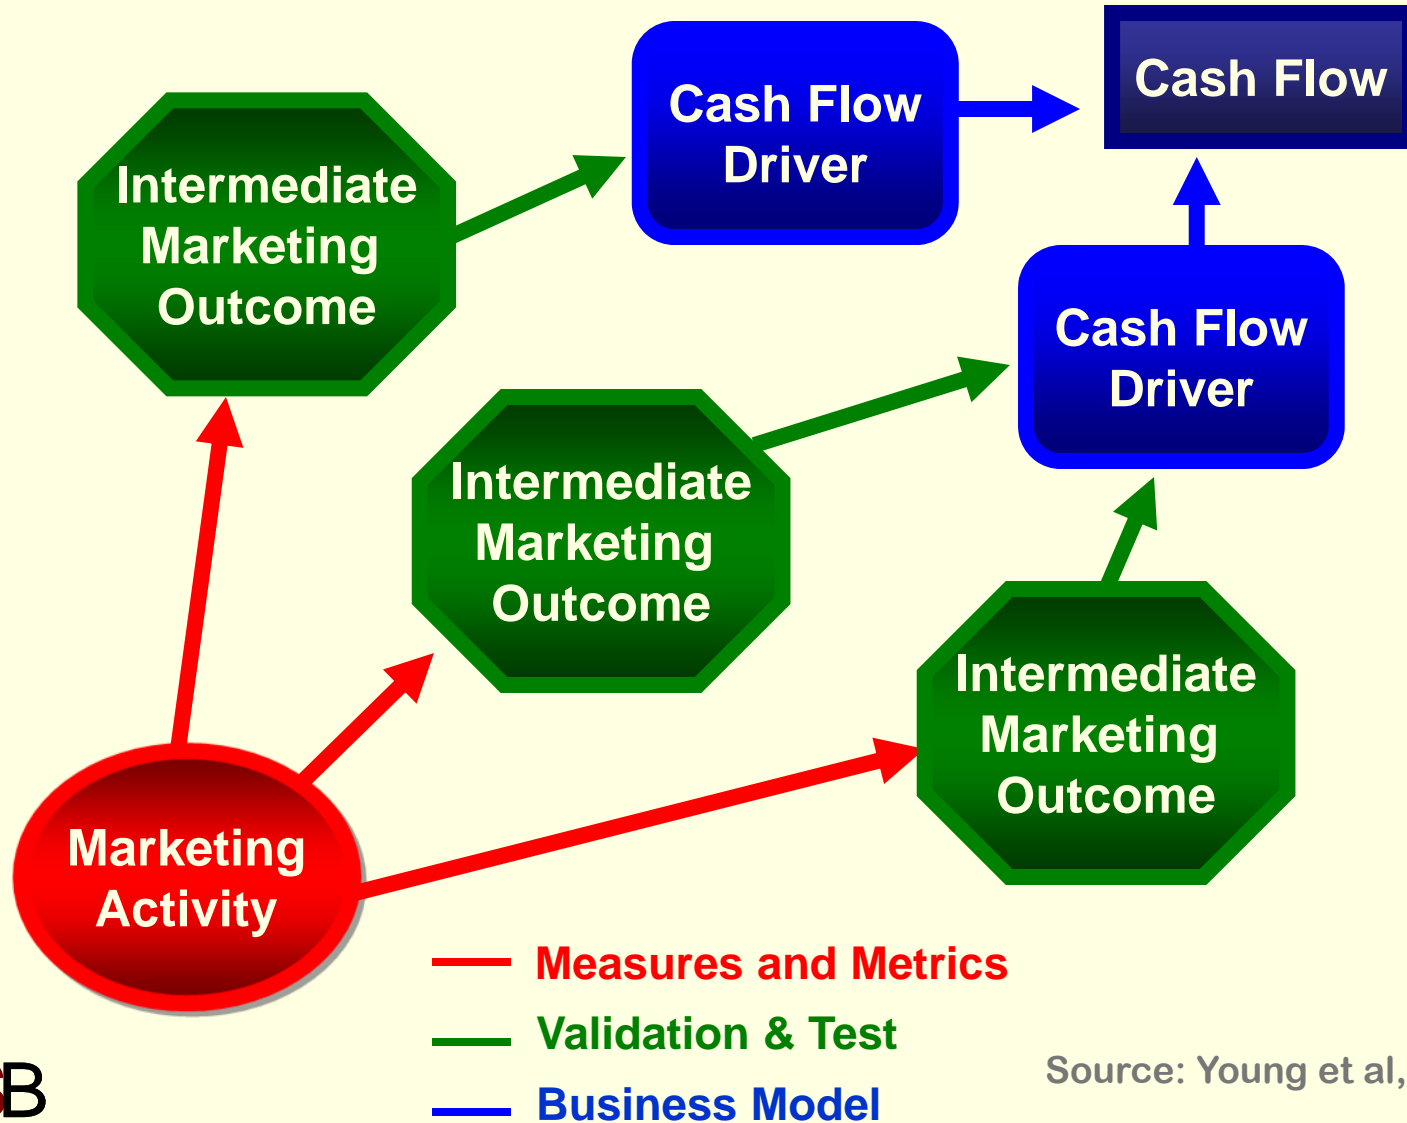

Cash flow both short-term and over time is the ultimate metric to which every business activity, including marketing, should be causally linked through the validation of intermediate marketing metrics.

The process of validating the intermediate outcome metrics against short-term and/or long-term cash flow drivers is necessary to facilitate forecasting and improvement in return.

The Marketing Metric Audit Protocol (MMAP) is a formal process for connecting marketing activities to the financial performance of the firm.

The process includes the conceptual linking of marketing activities to intermediate marketing outcome metrics to cash flow drivers of the business, as well as the validation and causality characteristics of an ideal metric.

MMAP: Marketing Metric Audit Protocol

Validation & Causality Audit

Every Intermediate Marketing Outcome Metric Should Be Validated Against Short-term and/or Long-Term Cash Flow Drivers and Ultimately Cash Flow (or to the Drivers of the Cash Flow Drivers).

MMAP: 10 Characteristics of Ideal Metrics

- 1. Relevant...addresses specific pending action
- 2. Predictive...accurately predicts outcome of pending action
- 3. Objective...not subject to personal interpretation
- 4. Calibrated...means the same across conditions & cultures
- 5. Reliable...dependable & stable over time
- 6. Sensitive...identifies meaningful differences in outcomes
- 7. Simple...uncomplicated meaning & implications clear
- 8. Causal...course of action leads to improvement
- 9. Transparent...subject to independent audit
- 10. Quality Assured...formal/on-going processes to assure 1-9

Overall Guidelines for Measures of Productivity

- A. Return on Marketing Investment is inherently a financial construct. No measure or measurement system is complete without a specific link to financial performance.

Measures of Return on Marketing Investment should:

- B. Reflect financial concepts of return, risk, time value of money & cost of capital.
- C. Provide information for guiding future decisions by predicting future economic outcomes as well as retrospective evidence of the impact of marketing actions.
- D. Recognize both immediate, short-term effects of actions and longer-term outcomes, as well as the fact that short & long term effects need not be directionally consistent.
- E. Recognize difference between total return and marginal return on investment.
- F. Recognize that different products and markets produce different rates of return.
- G. Distinguish between measures of outcome and measures of effort.
- H. Provide information meaningful & comparable across products, markets and firms.
- I. Clearly identify the purpose, form and scope of measurement.
- J. Be documented in sufficient detail to allow a knowledgeable user to understand utility and make comparisons among alternative measures.
- K. Be assessed relative to generally accepted standards of measurement development and validation.
- L. Be recognized as a necessary investment for assuring sound decision-making, accountability, continuous improvement, and transparency for all stakeholders.

Summary of C-Level Outreach Project*

- There is a universal need for true marketing ROI metrics... valid/predictive performance (return) metrics which can be integrated w/performance metrics from other parts of value chain.
- This need for metrics is especially true for advertising and in-store/similar “channel” activities as well as competitive moves.
- Metrics related to both short term and long term impact are needed...with focus on customer outcomes.
- Increased speed of business makes accurate forecasting critical.
- It will take a combined effort of marketing, finance and sales to find/agree on/work with the “best metrics”.
- A self-governing standards body could add real value to meeting these needs.

- Summary

We've accomplished a lot with a handful of visionary, passionate, and dedicated volunteers.

With a long way to go...and needs mounting...

This is an unprecedented opportunity to make a significant contribution to the marketing profession, business, and society overall.

Marketing is headed for fundamental change in mastering accountability & continuous improvement, taking its rightful place at the head of the strategic growth table, permanently.

MASB will enable this transformation & serve as the catalyst for advancement by attending to measurement.

Bottom Line

It will not be easy...it is going to take a lot of effort. If it was easy, someone would have already tackled this crucial issue.

The payoff for the marketing profession is worth the time, effort, and money.

Founding Director of MASB
